

FAST & CURIOUS

ED Talks from UC Santa Barbara's Gevirtz School

7 experts x 8 minutes

Wednesday, October 23
7 pm

Faulkner Gallery
Santa Barbara Public Library
40 E. Anapamu St.

FREE!

(reception following event)

education & psychology
research that matters

Each talk responds to themes found in Aristotle and Dante Discover the Secrets of the Universe by Benjamin Alire Sáenz, the 2019 Santa Barbara Reads selection.

Alison Cerezo on

Queer Latinxs and the Politics of Belonging

Ann Lippincott on

School Mental Health Programs

Melissa Morgan Consoli on

Overcoming Adversity

Rebeca Mireles-Rios &
Victor Rios on

Community Engaged Research

Diana Santacrose on

Latinx Youth Empowerment

Kelly Whaling on

Mental Health Needs of Gang Members

While the event is free and open to the public, please RSVP for planning purposes to:
rsvp@education.ucsb.edu

This is the 7th edition of the lecture series;
to see videos from previous events, go to:
education.ucsb.edu/impact/local/fast-curious-ed-talks

education.ucsb.edu

santabarbaraca.gov/library

The Gevirtz School
UC Santa Barbara

