

PEAC Community Teaching Fellowship

Growing a diverse, local education workforce

What is the PEAC Community Teaching Fellowship?

The PEAC Community Teaching Fellowship aims to assist in diversifying our local workforce and better serving our K-12 population by providing a full-ride scholarship to the UCSB Teacher Education Program to teacher candidates wishing to stay in (or return to) their local community. Final candidates will be vetted by Santa Barbara Unified School District (SBUSD) and offered provisional first right of refusal on suitable teaching job openings in SBUSD, to be finalized after successful completion of their credential program.

How much funding will I receive?

The PEAC Community Teaching Fellowship awards up to $36,400 based on financial need.

Who is eligible for the PEAC Community Teaching Fellowship?

Required eligibility criteria:

- Will attend the UCSB Teacher Education Program to pursue their single subject, multiple subject, or education specialist credential
- Has high financial need to pursue their credential

Preferred eligibility criteria:

- Graduated from SBUSD's Program for Effective Access to College (PEAC), and/or
- Is from the Santa Barbara area or neighboring regions, and/or
- Is from an underserved background(s), and/or
- Is a first-generation college student, and/or
- Is bi/multilingual, and
- Is willing and interested to work in SBUSD upon successful completion of credential

How do I apply?

Apply by completing the application.

Apply by February 1, 2021 to be considered for funding for the 2021-22 school year.

